

Daily Confessions

My Leadership:

1. Everything I do and say will be done in love and not in fear or anger. (1 Corinthians 13:4-8)
2. God is the supreme leader of my family and I lead as I follow God. (Psalm 23)
3. As the Priest of my home I will seek first the Kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto me. (Matt 6:33)
4. I will lead being led by the Holy Spirit and not by my flesh. (Luke 9:23)
5. I am quick to listen, slow to speak and ask more questions than I give answers. (James 1:19)

My Wife:

1. My wife love the Lord with all her heart, soul and mind (Matt 23:37)
2. She will follow hard after the purpose you have for her life. (Psalm 63:8)
3. She speaks wisdom and gives faithful instruction. (Prov. 31:26)
4. I love my wife as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it. (Eph 5:25)
5. My wife seeks the kingdom of God and his righteousness. Therefore she has the desires of her heart. (Matt 6:33)

Daily Confessions

Our Family:

1. Our family walks in divine health and healing all the days of our lives ( 1 Peter 2:24 )
2. We lean not to our own understanding, but lean on the counsel of God. (Prov 3:5)
3. My family dwells in the secret place of the most high, therefore we abide under the almighty shadow of protection. (Ps 91:1)
4. My family walks in peace and has hope and a future because we seek The Lord. (Jer 29:11)
5. Every need in my family is met according to your riches in glory. (Phil 4:19)

Our Children:

1. My children hear God's voice, and the voice of a stranger, they do not follow. (John 10:5)
2. They have the mind of Christ and can do all things through Christ. (Phil 4:13)
3. Great is the peace and undisturbed composure of my children. (Isaiah 54:13)
4. My children let their light shine before thier friends and others. (Matt 5:16)
5. My children do not conform to this world, but are transformed by the renewing of their minds. (Rom 12:2)